Josue Avila BIOGRAPHY

As a child Josue was attracted to music and quickly began learning how to play different instruments. After some time he began to sing and participate in his church and he realized that, that was his calling to be a blessing to others with what God gave him. After some years Josue has blessed many, traveling to different countries singing, playing instruments and bringing the gospel of Jesus.

Josue Avila is an excellent singer, musician, and worshipper, and he loves what he does. He has understood that his ministerial experiences are very important. But more important is his first ministry. His Family. Josue is married to his beautiful wife, Ruth, and have 2 beautiful babies, Noah and Belmar.

God has been the center of their home and the foundation of his ministry, along with his family.

Josue Avila MUSIC

In 2008 Josue released his first solo album titled "Quiero Estar Contigo" which means "I Want to be With You." This experimental album consists of exiting up beat tunes as well as laid back, relaxing tunes.

He also released the album titled "Vol. 1" along with the group Sandoval Band. His most recent production is titled "Solo Tu y Yo" which means "Only You and I" and it is focused on worshipping God for His love towards us.

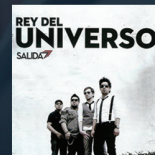

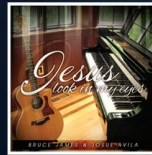

Jose Ari EXPERIENCE

Serving in his local church, Josue has been the leader of the Praise and Worship ministry since 1997. He has participated in events singing and playing for others, such as Gadiel Espinoza, Ingrid Rosario, Funky, Rene Gonzales, Roberto Orellana, Ricardo Rodriguez, Julio Melgar, Juan Carlos Alvarado, and others.

Josue also has his own recording studio, where he produces his own music, and has also collaborated in other musical productions from Conexzion Directa, Salida 7, Alex Lopez and others.

Currently Josue is the pianist and musical director for one of the most influential Christian artists, Ingrid Rosario. They have traveled all over Latin American countries such as Colombia, Guatemala, Mexico, Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico, Costa Rica, and even European Countries. He even had the privilege of recording in her latest album "Pasion." Traveling with Ingrid's Ministry for more than 5 years, he considers this a remarkable, unforgettable learning experience for himself and his ministry.
